

'Ocean to Shore'

Verse

Searching for freedom
As the waves begin to rise
This ocean seems deeper
Sailing under ever darkening skies.

So come and take cover
We can't swim against these tides
Together we're stronger
Sailing on to reach the other side...
... the other side...

Chorus

So set the course, the stars will guide our way to a better day,
This time we've known won't last forever.
As the storm subsides, we'll sail beneath the sun across this sea,
The warmth will energise our skin...
its shining light will surely draw us in.

Verse

See a changing horizon
Colours burning, fan the flame
A light that grows stronger
Tormenting skies will ease with summer rain
...summer rain...

Chorus

So set the course, the stars will guide our way to a better day,
This time we've known won't last forever.
As the storm subsides, we'll sail beneath the sun across this sea,
The warmth will energise our skin...
its shining light will surely draw us in.

This chance, a beginning
Find your passion, set your sail,
With new inspiration,
Riding waves, with freedom, cannot fail!

Its shining light will surely draw us in!
